DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (if known) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE
The house is a two story, three bay long, two bay deep frame structure built on a brick foundation. To the rear of the house is a four bay wing consisting of two center windows flanked by two doors. There is a chimney in the center of the wing; there are also chimneys within the gables of the two story section. An unusual feature about this mid-19th century structure is that the backs of the fireplaces are exposed on the exterior. The clapboard is cut around the brick. The house has 6/6 sash windows with louvered shutters on both floors. In the attic of the two story section, the window has 4/2 sash. In the wing there is a single dormer in that section closest to the two story section. On the end of the one and one-half story wing is a one story concrete block structure of 20th century date. I did not see the interior except for the middle room which has an enclosed stair to the second floor, a fireplace with mantle, and trim from the mid-19th century. It is in very good condition with several white washed outbuildings, which may date from the same period.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

The house is a good example of a well-preserved mid-19th century farm house, showing the transition between the vernacular, "home-made," house to the, "mail-order," mass-produced house.
